1.0 POLICY:

Each employee is hired in one of three categories of employment as outlined below. At all times, Title 70 provisions on employment of school district staff will prevail.

- A. Probationary Full-Time
- B. Regular Full-Time
- C. Part Time

Probationary Full-Time: Except for positions covered by a negotiated agreement or where state statute says differently, the first full year of active service from the date of employment in a full-time position. During this time, a probationary employee is a day-to-day employee.

Regular Full-Time: Employee has successfully completed the appropriate probationary employment period for the position in which he or she is employed and, upon recommendation from the superintendent, the Board of Education has approved the probationary employee being moved to regular full-time status.

Part-Time: Part-time employees have a reasonable expectation of continuation but only as a part-time employee. A part-time employee does not have special rights to full-time employment if the position becomes full-time.
